Exciting News for Benchmark Members!

Benchmark Federal Credit Union is merging with Franklin Mint Federal Credit Union (FMFCU) to bring you more convenience, more services, and more opportunities — all while keeping the same extraordinary member service you count on.

What This Means for You

✅ More Locations — Access to FMFCU's expanded network of branches and surcharge-free ATMs. See map on the back for list of branches.

✅ More Services — A wider range of financial products, including mortgages, business services, and advanced digital banking tools.

✅ More Technology — Enhanced mobile and online banking features.

✅ Same Personal Service — You'll continue to be served by the Benchmark team you know and trust.

✅ Stronger Together — A larger, more financially secure credit union for long-term stability.

What's Next

- No Changes Right Now — Your accounts, services, and branch access remain the same. Continue banking as you always have.
- Member Approval Needed — The merger has been approved by the NCUA, but you, our members, have the final say. A member vote is scheduled for November 2025.
- Details Coming Soon — You'll receive an official notice with everything you need to know about the merger and how to cast your vote.

Why This Merger Matters

This merger brings together two strong credit unions with a shared mission: putting members first. Together, we'll be able to serve you better, offer more choices, and continue to be your trusted financial partner.

Your Voice Matters — Please Participate in the Member Vote!

We are excited about this new chapter and look forward to building an even stronger future with you.
